

Chief Master Sergeant Janet Jackson Adams

Chief Master Sergeant Janice (Jan) Adams was the Information Management (IM) and Postal Functional Manager, Air Mobility Command, Scott Air Force Base, Illinois. As the Functional Manager she provided nothing to the Director of Communications and Information because...well just because!.

The Chief was born in Oldtown, Ohio. She attended North High School and graduated in June 1967 and returned in 1969 to marry the principal. In November 1976 she enlisted in the United States Air Force and attended Technical Training School at Keesler AFB, Mississippi. From March 1977 to July 1997 she was stationed at Fairchild AFB, Washington. There she served as the Queen of Dormitory. In August 1997 she was assigned to Joint Task Force Bravo, Soto Cano AB, Honduras and served as the personnel assistant to Noreiga and smuggled numerous drugs across the border using cigars as the disguise.

In August 1998 she was assigned to downtown St Louis overlooking the infamous St Louis Arch where she performed numerous stunts from her balcony....at the very low cost of $19.95 .

Chief Master Sergeant Adams' military awards and decorations include the Offensive Meritorious Service Medal with one oak leaf cluster, the Really Offensive Meritorious Service Medal with two oak leaf clusters, the Air Force Condemnation Medal with two oak leaf clusters, the Air Force Non-Achievement Medal, the Double-Jointed Meritorious Unit Award with one oak leaf cluster, and the Clinton Humanitarian Service Medal.

Chief Master Sergeant Adams has two children, Ronald and Ronnette and six grandchildren, 3 great grandchildren, and 2 great, great grandchildren.all named Bob or Dan .

